or
 - (b) a general description of an offence against a Law,
is deemed sufficient for all purposes to describe the offence designated by that word, expression or general description.

Penalties in relation to ticket offences

- 7.5 For offences for which a ticket may be issued, Council must establish by Law, Regulation or Council Resolution:
- (a) the penalty or fine for the offence,
 - (b) the discounted amount of the penalty or fine payable is received on or before the 14th day after the date the ticket was received or presumed to have been received, and

This Law Applies Despite Other Offense or Penalty Provisions

- 7.8 The ticket fines and procedures set out in this Law apply to the specified provisions of all Tzeachten Laws set out in Schedule 2 despite the fact that those Laws may set out different fines or procedures for summary convictions.

Form and content of tickets

- 7.9 A ticket must be in the form prescribed by Regulation or Council Resolution and when a ticket or compliance notice is issued it must contain the following information:
- (a) particulars of the alleged contravention in sufficient detail that a recipient of the notice is able to identify the offence alleged,
 - (b) the amount of the penalty, the discounted penalty and the surcharge specified in the regulations,
 - (c) the methods of paying the penalty,
 - (d) how to dispute the alleged contravention,

 - (g) in the case of a compliance notice, that a screening officer may be asked to review the notice,
 - (h) in the case of a ticket, that the Person receiving the ticket may appeal the ticket to a justice of the peace, and
 - (i) any other information required by the Council Resolution or regulations.

Laying information and serving ticket

- 7.10 An Enforcement Officer may complete and issue a ticket to any Person in respect of an alleged contravention for which a ticket may be issued.

- 7.11 When laying an information by means of a ticket, an Enforcement Officer must indicate on the ticket the offence charged and must sign the ticket.
- 7.12 The Enforcement Officer must serve the ticket on the Person alleged to have contravened the Law.
- 7.13 Service of a ticket under subsection 7.12 may be effected by:
- (a) serving a copy of the ticket on the Person alleged to have contravened the Law immediately after the alleged contravention, or
 - (b) causing a copy of the ticket to be served in a similar manner as a summons may be served under the Offence Act.
- 7.14 A ticket or compliance notice may be completed, issued and stored,
- (a) in electronic format by electronic means, or
 - (b) by another means,
- that allows the ticket or notice to be reproduced in intelligible form.
- 7.15 Service of a ticket under subsection 7.12 may be proved by:
- (a) the oral evidence given under oath of the Person who served it, or
 - (b) the certificate of the Person who served the ticket, if the certificate is endorsed on the ticket or a copy of the ticket.
- 7.16 The certificate referred to in subsection 7.15(b) is proof of the facts stated in the certificate and of the authority of the Person who signed it without further proof of the Person's appointment or signature.

Choice of paying fine or disputing ticket

- 7.17 If a fine is indicated on a ticket for an offence charged, the Person on whom the ticket is served may, within 14 days after the date of service,
- (a) pay the fine indicated on the ticket to the Tzeachten Lands office in accordance with the prescribed instructions, or
 - (b) dispute the allegation contained in the ticket by
 - (i) delivering or having delivered to the address set out in the ticket a written notice of dispute, or
 - (ii) appearing in Person at the location set out in the ticket to give notice of dispute.
- 7.18 A notice of dispute under subsection 7.17(b) must contain an address for the Person disputing the allegation and sufficient information to identify the ticket and the alleged contravention being disputed.
- 7.19 For the purpose of subsection 7.17(b), a notice of dispute that is delivered by mail is deemed to have been delivered on the date it was mailed.

Effect of paying fine

- 7.20 A Person who pays a fine in accordance with subsection 7.17(a) [choice of paying fine or disputing ticket] is deemed to have pleaded guilty to the offence with which the Person was charged and to have paid the fine imposed.

7.21 If a Person who is served with a ticket pays the fine as referred to in subsection 7.17(a), no conviction need be drawn up or entered unless it is required under the Law contravened or by the Person convicted or a prosecutor.

Hearing of dispute

7.22 If notice of dispute is given in accordance with subsection 7.17(b) [choice of paying fine or disputing ticket], the Lands Manager or Council must refer the ticket to a justice of the peace or the Provincial Court for a hearing.

7.23 If a ticket is referred to a justice or the Provincial Court under subsection 7.22, Tzeachten must confirm that the Person who was served with the ticket receives a notice of the hearing specifying a time and place for the appearance of the Person before a justice or the Provincial Court.

7.24 If a Person appears before a justice at the time and place specified in the notice under subsection 7.23, section 58 of the Offence Act does not apply to the Person and the justice or the Provincial Court has jurisdiction to hear the dispute without examining the notice of dispute or the notice of the hearing or inquiring into the service of the ticket on the Person.

7.25 Despite section 60 of the Offence Act but subject to the Supreme Court Civil Rules, a justice hearing the trial on a ticket may

- (a) admit as evidence, whether or not it would be admissible under the laws of evidence, any oral or written testimony or any record or thing that the justice considers is relevant to an issue in the trial and is credible and trustworthy, and
- (b) adopt procedures that are conducive to justly and expeditiously determining the matter.

7.26 As a restriction, a justice may not admit under subsection 7.25(a) anything that is privileged under the laws of evidence.

7.27 If a Person who is served with a ticket

- (a) has
 - (i) appeared before a justice or a judge of the Provincial Court at the time and place specified in the notice under subsection 7.23, and
 - (ii) pleaded guilty to or been found guilty of the offence with which the Person was charged, or
- (b) is deemed under subsection 7.28 or 7.29 [Failure to appear at hearing] to have pleaded guilty to the offence with which the Person was charged, no conviction need be drawn up or entered unless it is required under the Law contravened or by the Person convicted or a prosecutor.

Failure to appear at hearing

7.28 A Person is deemed to have not disputed a charge if the Person fails to appear before a justice to dispute the charge

- (a) at the time and place specified in the notice of the hearing referred to in subsection 7.23 [hearing of dispute], or
- (b) at a new time and place set under subsection 7.37 [time extensions if Person not at fault in failing to respond or appear].

- 7.29 If a Person is deemed under subsection 7.28 to have not disputed the charge,
- (a) the Person is deemed to have pleaded guilty to the offence with which the Person was charged, and
 - (b) the fine amount indicated on the ticket is immediately payable to Tzeachten.
- 7.30 Nothing in subsection 7.28 is to be construed as abrogating the right of a Person to appeal the conviction under section 102 of the Offence Act.

Failure to respond to ticket

- 7.31 A Person served with a ticket under subsection 7.10 [laying information and serving ticket] is deemed to have not disputed the charge if
- (a) the Person does not pay the fine or dispute the charge, as provided in subsection 7.17 [choice of paying fine or disputing ticket], and
 - (b) at least 14 days have elapsed since the ticket was served on the Person.
- 7.32 If a Person is deemed under subsection 7.31 to have not disputed the charge, subsection 7.28 [failure to appear at hearing] applies.
- 7.33 Nothing in subsection 7.31 is to be construed as abrogating the right of a Person to appeal the conviction under section 102 of the Offence Act.

Time extensions if Person not at fault in failing to respond or appear

- 7.34 A Person who is served with a ticket but
- (a) does not dispute the charge, or
 - (b) fails to appear before a justice at the time and place specified in the notice under subsection 7.23 [notice of hearing], may apply to a justice for a time extension in the circumstances established by this section.
- 7.35 In the case of a Person who did not dispute the charge, the Person may only apply if
- (a) the Person has, through no fault of that Person, not had an opportunity to dispute the charge, and
 - (b) not more than 30 days have passed since the end of the period referred to in subsection 7.17 [choice of paying fine or disputing ticket].
- 7.36 In the case of a Person who failed to appear before a justice to dispute the charge, the Person may only apply if
- (a) the failure was through no fault of the Person, and
 - (b) not more than 30 days have passed since the date specified in the notice under subsection 7.23 [notice of hearing].
- 7.37 The justice to whom the application is made, on being satisfied by affidavit in the prescribed form and with or without hearing from the applicant, that the applicable conditions set out in subsection 7.35 or 7.36 have been met may
- (a) strike out the conviction, if any,
 - (b) in the case of a Person who did not dispute the charge, allow the Person 14 days after the date the conviction is struck to dispute the charge in accordance with

- subsection 7.17 [choice of paying fine or disputing ticket], and
- (c) in the case of a Person who failed to appear to dispute the charge, set a new time and place for the appearance of the Person before a justice.

7.38 If a conviction is struck out under subsection 7.37, the justice must give the Person a certificate of the fact in the prescribed form.

Collections

- 7.39 If a person fails to pay a fine or penalty under this Law, the Lands Manager is authorized, thirty (30) days after having sent a warning letter to the person, to:
- (a) Send any unpaid fine or penalty to a collection agency; or
- (b) For fines or penalties owed by Tzeachten Members, to send a request to the Tzeachten Council that moneys be withheld from annual membership distributions.

Regulations in relation to ticket offences

- 7.40 Council may make regulations or pass Council Resolutions as follows:
