LAND LAW

For Governing the Use and Occupancy of OCN Lands

PREAMBLE

WHEREAS the Opaskwayak Cree Nation (OCN) entered into solemn Treaty arrangement with Her Majesty's Government of the Dominion of Canada by adhesion to Treaty 5;

AND WHEREAS the Opaskwayak Cree Nation did not through said Treaty give up their authority to be self-governing people;

AND WHEREAS the Opaskwayak Cree Nation has entered into the Framework Agreement on First Nation Land Management with Canada on February 12, 1996, as amended, and as ratified on behalf of the Government of Canada by the First Nation Land Management Act, S.C. 1999, C. 24;

AND WHEREAS the Opaskwayak Cree Nation had the option of withdrawing the provisions of land management from the Indian Act which sections are outlined in Section 38 of the First Nation Land Management Act;

AND WHEREAS by withdrawing from those provisions of the Indian Act, Opaskwayak Cree Nation through their Land Code has the authority and jurisdiction to exercise control and management over their lands and resources for the use and benefit of its citizens, rather than having their lands managed by Canada;

AND WHEREAS the title to OCN Lands listed in the OCN Land Code and the Individual Transfer Agreement between OCN and Canada will remain with Canada and will continue to be set apart for the use and benefit of OCN for which the land has been set apart;

AND WHEREAS the Opaskwayak Cree Nation, through ratification of their own Land Code on June 20, 2002, for purpose of setting out the principles, guidelines and processes by which OCN will exercise control and management over its lands and resources consistent with the Framework Agreement on First Nation Land Management and the First Nation Land Management Act;

AND WHEREAS the Opaskwayak Cree Nation Land Code took effect as of August 1, 2002 pursuant to the ratification of the citizens of Opaskwayak Cree Nation;

AND WHEREAS pursuant to Section 6.1 of the Opaskwayak Cree Nation Land Code, Land Laws may be enacted in relation to the development, conservation, protection, management and occupancy of OCN Lands;

AND WHEREAS the Chief and Council have deemed it necessary to enact a Land Law for governing the use and occupancy of OCN Lands relating to the administration of Leases, Permits, Social Use and Licenses;

AND WHEREAS nothing in this Land Law shall alter, diminish, abrogate, derogate or breach the Treaty and/or aboriginal rights of OCN or its citizens;

AND WHEREAS the Land Authority Board of Directors has approved this Land Law for recommendation for enactment by the Chief and Council on June 24, 2003;

THEREFORE IT IS HEREBY ENACTED by an absolute majority of Chief and Council of Opaskwayak Cree Nation at a duly convened meeting for the Land Law for Governing the Use and Occupancy of OCN Lands, and OCN shall administer and manage OCN Lands in accordance with this Land Law.

Paramountcy

- 2.2 For greater certainty, terms shall have the meaning or definitions attributed to them in the Framework Agreement on First Nation Land Management and/or the First Nations Land Management Act, and/or the OCN Land Code and/or the Individual Transfer Agreement, except where same conflict with a meaning set out herein.

Gender

- 2.3 Wherever the singular and the masculine are used throughout this Land Law, the same shall be construed as meaning the plural, or the feminine or neuter where the context or the parties hereto so require.

3. AUTHORITY

Fair and Equitable

- 3.1 The Chief and Council and the Land Authority are committed to treating all Interest holders fairly and equitably when granting an Interest for use of OCN Lands, while at the same time, always taking into consideration the preservation and protection of OCN Lands.

Authority Criteria

- 3.2 This Land Law will set out and outline the guidelines and criteria that shall be adhered to by Chief and Council, the Land Authority, OCN Citizens, Interest holders, any and all users, occupiers or potential Interest holders.

Authority to Administer

- 3.3 In accordance with and subject to this Land Law, the Land Authority as delegates of Chief and Council, through Land Law 2003/002, shall have general authority and administration over all Interests and Licenses relating to OCN Lands issued pursuant to the OCN Land Code.

Exercise Authority

- 3.4 The Land Authority, as delegated by Council, shall have the authority to exercise rights and privileges of the lessor or permittor under any lease or permit, as conferred by any collateral agreement, and any implicit in, or arising out of each transaction relating to land.

Term of jurisdiction

- 3.5 The term over which the Land Authority shall have jurisdiction to exercise its rights and privileges under this Land Law shall be deemed to commence August 1, 2002, and shall continue until such time as the OCN Chief and Council rescinds this Land Law.

Greater Certainty

- 3.6 For greater certainty to Section 3.6 to these Regulations, the Land Authority, prior to the enactment of this Land Law may:
- a. backdate agreements for land use to August 1, 2002 in order to legalize the land use;
  - b. ratify any land allocations made by the Interim Land Authority and have the authority to execute such agreements; or
  - c. grant any new land allocations, in principle, and ratify those allocation upon enactment of these Regulations.

4. PROCESSES

Harmony

- 4.1 The Chief and Council along with the Land Authority and its staff shall at all times while developing regulations, policies and procedures under this Land Law maintain balance and harmony with respect to traditions, social needs, economic and other ventures in relation to land.

Future Generations

- 4.2 The governance, occupancy, administration and monitoring of OCN Lands will take into consideration the responsibility of keeping the land safe for future generations and at the same time implement the values and vision of OCN Citizens that the land is held collectively by its Citizens and no one person shall have ultimate use of the land.

Terms and Conditions

- 4.3 Documents for land allocations shall be in writing specifying the terms and conditions for Interest or License holders to ensure the protection of OCN Lands, and such documents shall be registered in the OCN Land Registry and the First Nation Land Registry in accordance with Sections 28.1 to 28.5 of the OCN Land Code.

5. INTERESTS AND LICENSES

Type of Interest or License

5.1 Chief and Council and/or the Land Authority has the authority pursuant to the OCN Land Code, to grant an Interest or License in OCN Lands. The types of Interest and Licenses that will be recognized shall include:

- a. Traditional or Custom Allocation - shall be defined as an unregistered interest in land that existed prior to August 1, 2002. This interest remains with the existing occupant and shall continue until the original occupant has moved; is no longer an OCN Citizen; or becomes deceased. Thereafter, any potential occupant must apply for the use of that land, within a reasonable time, in order to have their interest in the land recognized as a legal interest for that particular allocation;
- b. Pre-Existing Allocation - are current valid leases or permits registered in the Indian Lands Registry System as of July 31, 2002; this interest shall remain in place until it is cancelled, expired, or relinquished;
- c. Newly Granted Allocation - are Leases, Permits or Licenses granted and documented by entering into an agreement after August 1, 2002 and will remain in effect until the term expires, is assigned to another party, is relinquished, or cancelled.

New Granted Allocation

5.2 Any newly granted allocations must be a registered instrument in order for OCN Citizens and or non-Citizens to have their Interest in the Land recognized and to ensure that records are documented and filed for future use.

Enforcement

5.3 Pursuant to section 28.2 of the OCN Land Code, an Interest or License created or granted after the OCN Land Code takes effect will not be enforceable unless it is registered in the OCN Land Registry.

Compliance

- 5.4 All Interests and Licenses will be administered, monitored and enforced by the Land Authority and its staff for compliance to the terms and conditions which Council and/or Land Authority has set. If terms and conditions are not adhere to upon notice being given, the Land Authority may make recommendation to Chief and Council to:
- a. depending on the non-conformity, the Interest or License holder may be required to pay any all costs incurred or incurring to abate the non-conformity; and
  - b. to cancel allocation of Interest or License due to non-conformity.

Right to Remedy

- 5.5 The Land Authority shall have the right to remedy any defaults that may occur within a Lease, Permit, License or agreement according to its terms and conditions.

Notice

- 5.6 Notices shall be issued by the Land Authority or staff regarding any and all non-compliance issues and the Interest or License holder shall be given a time frame to abate the non-compliance issue.

Regulations

- 5.7 Regulations shall be established on the processes and procedures that Land Authority and its staff will utilize to ensure that steps are followed prior to recommendation of termination or cancellation of an Interest or License holder.

6. GRANTING OF INTERESTS AND LICENSES

Land Use Plan

- 6.1 In granting use of OCN Lands, any such grant shall be consistent with the Land Use Plan Policy as approved by Chief and Council from time to time, until such time as a Land Law for Land Use Plan and Community Plan including natural resources are enacted.

Application

- 6.2 All applications for use of Land, along with relevant documents, shall be submitted to the Land Authority for approval or denial, in accordance with Regulations for Application of Land Use.

Approval by Motion

- 6.3 All granting of Interests or Licenses shall be by motion of the Land Authority at a duly convened meeting.

Urgent Matters

- 6.4 For any urgent matter that arises and if the Land Authority can not meet at a special meeting due to prior commitments and time is of the essence, approval can be granted by Chief and Council by Resolution at a duly convened meeting and the Land Authority shall ratify Council's decision at their next Land Authority meeting.

Execution of Land Transactions

- 6.5 The land transaction agreements shall be executed by the applicant along with OCN signing designates. Chief and Council shall by Resolution appoint signing authorities for Lands transaction agreements as follows:

  - b. Adjustments due to a Rent Review on a Leased area shall be approved by motion from Land Authority and Rent Notice to be signed by the Land Manager on behalf of the Land Authority;
  - c. Leases, Permits or Licenses less than five (5) years, for which standard form documents have been approved by Council, shall be executed by the Land Authority signing officers and a Resolution from Council will not be required, excepting those Leases which a lending institution or organization makes a request to have Council's approval, then a Resolution from Council will be required;

- d. Leases, Permits or Licenses over five (5) years and less than thirty (30) years, for which standard form documents have been approved by Council, shall be executed by the Land Authority signing officers and a Resolution approving the transactions is required by Chief and Council;
- e. Leases, Permits or Licenses over thirty (30) years and less than forty (40) years shall require that a quorum of Council execute the transactions and the Land Authority shall sign the consent form;
- f. All Easement agreements shall be executed by an absolute majority of Council and shall require a consent from Land Authority signing officers;
- g. Any Resource permits such as timber, gravel or minerals shall require a Resolution to be signed by an absolute majority of Council consenting to the granting of a Resource permit and Land Authority signing officers shall execute the documents;
- h. Any sub-leases, assignments, mortgages, amendments or addendums shall require consent by the Land Authority;
- i. Any transaction over forty (40) years shall require community approval at a community meeting, a report of the results shall be documented and if the community approves, then Council shall execute documents on behalf of the OCN community and the Land Authority shall sign a consent form;
- j. Any additional lands to be included as OCN Land and managed under the OCN Land Code shall require a Resolution from Council certifying community acceptance of a satisfactory environmental site inspection;
- k. Any land transactions such as land exchanges and expropriations shall require that results of a referendum vote accompany any documentation that will be sent to registry and Council shall formalize the results of the ratification vote by signing a Resolution; and
- l. For terminations or cancellations of land transactions will be required as follows:

- i. occupancy permits, permission to enter permit; where the term is less than one (1) year will require a letter of notification to the permittees or licenses signed by the Chairperson of the Land Authority and a consent by the Land Authority;
- ii. any leases, permits, licenses, easements shall require approval by a Resolution of an absolute majority of Council and consent by the Land Authority.

No Granting

6.6 No Interest or License shall be granted where a previous Interest or License exists by a Traditional/Custom allocation or Pre-Existing allocation.

Prior Interest

6.7 Where a Traditional/Custom or Pre-Existing Interest allocation is discovered subsequent to the granting of a new Interest or License, then the new Interest or License shall be void ab initio upon proof of the prior allocation.

Liability

6.8 The Land Authority shall not be liable for any errors or omissions with respect to the granting or voiding of Interests or Licenses including circumstances arising under Section 6.6.
