PART I. PRINCIPLES

WHEREAS An emergency exists as a result of the potential presence of novel coronavirus COVID 19 (“COVID 19”) on Sts’ailes Lands and elsewhere in British Columbia which poses risks to Sts’ailes Lands, the environment and the health of Members;

WHEREAS COVID 19 is a disease that is readily communicable from person to person and carries risks of fever, pneumonia, and in the most serious cases, a risk of death;

WHEREAS the spread of COVID 19 has been declared a pandemic by the World Health Organization; and

WHEREAS Sts’ailes health experts have advised Council of the need to adopt social distancing, restrictions on public gatherings, and restrictions on the use of Sts’ailes Lands to reduce the risk of spreading the virus on Sts’ailes Lands and amongst Members and their families.

WHEREAS section 14.4 of the Xa’xa Temexw Te Sts’ailes Land Code, certified on April 24, 2018 (the Land Code) sets out the authority of Council to enact laws that Council believes are required urgently to protect Sts’ailes Lands or Members;

WHEREAS Council reasonably believes that an emergency law is required urgently to protect Sts’ailes Lands and Members from the risk of the spread of COVID 19;

WHEREAS in accordance with section 14.5 of the Xa’xa Temexw Te Sts’ailes Land Code this law will expire within 120 days of enactment;

WHEREAS Council will monitor the COVID 19 virus risks on Sts’ailes Lands and may in accordance with sections 14.4 and 14.5 of the Xa’xa Temexw Te Sts’ailes Land Code decide at a future date whether to re-enact, amend, or repeal all or part of this Law;

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED THAT the Sts’ailes Interim COVID 19 Virus Community Protection Law (2020) is hereby enacted as a law of Sts’ailes.

PART VIII. GENERAL

Interim nature of this Law

- 8.1 This Law is an interim law to respond to an urgent situation on Sts'ailes Lands and will no longer be in force 120 days after enactment, except to the extent required to complete any enforcement actions arising from events taking place while this Law was in force.

Law applies to Sts'ailes employees and Sts'ailes Council

- 8.2 Employees, representatives and agents of Sts'ailes may be suspended for a period of time specified by Council, or have their employment or contract with Sts'ailes terminated if they fail to comply with an order issued under this Law.
- 8.3 A Councilor may be temporarily suspended from Council, by a majority decision of Council, for a period of time specified by Council if they fail to comply with an order issued under this Law.

No liability

8.4 None of Sts'ailes, present or past Council, or members, employees, representatives or agents of any of Sts'ailes or Council are liable for any damages or other loss, including economic loss, sustained by any Person, or to the property of any Person, as a result of neglect or failure, for any reason, to discover or detect any contravention of this Law or any other Sts'ailes Law, or from the neglect or failure, for any reason or in any manner, to enforce this Law or any other Sts'ailes Law.

Limitation Period

8.5 Any actions against Sts'ailes (including Council and its employees) for the unlawful doing of anything that:

- a) is purported to have been done under the powers conferred by this Law or any Sts'ailes Law; and
- b) might have been lawfully done if acting in the manner established by law, must be commenced within six (6) months after the cause of action first arose.

Required Notice

8.6 Sts'ailes is in no case liable for damages unless notice in writing, setting out the time, place and manner in which the damage has been sustained, is delivered to Sts'ailes within two (2) months from the date on which the damage was sustained. In the case of the death of a person injured, the failure to give notice required by this section is not a bar to the maintenance of the action. Failure to give the notice or its insufficiency is not a bar to the maintenance of an action if the court before whom it is tried, or, in case of appeal, the court of appeal, believes:

- a) there was a reasonable excuse; and
- b) Sts'ailes has not been prejudiced in its defence by the failure or insufficiency.

Compliance with other Laws

8.7 Where any other law or legal requirement may apply to any matter covered by this Law, compliance with this Law will not relieve the person from also complying with the provisions of such other applicable law or legal requirement.

Severability

8.8 In the event that all or any part of any section of this Law is found by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, that part or section shall be severable, and the remaining portions and sections of this Law shall remain in full force and effect.

Coming into Force

8.9 This Law will come into force on the date that it is duly passed by Council.

BE IT KNOWN that this Law is entitled the Sts'ailes Interim COVID 19 Virus Community Protection Law (2020) and is hereby enacted by a quorum of Council of Sts'ailes held on March 27, 2020
