

DOKIS FIRST NATION

HomeNewsAbout DokisBand ServiceBusiness DirectoryLinksMuseum

Welcome to Dokis First Nation

Dokis First Nation is a community located on the boundaries that separate the Districts of Parry Sound, Sudbury and Nipissing, approximately 16 kilometers South-West of Lake Nipissing on the French River. The community is accessed by a 25 kilometer gravel road from Highway 64 leading to the two nearest urban centers of North Bay, via Highway 17 and Sudbury via Highway 69. Both centers are approximately 120 kilometers from the community.

NEWS & EVENTS

Dokis Okikendawt Project brings green energy to Ontario consumers

During construction of the Okikendawt Project in 2013, Dokis Chief Denise Restoule said that she was enormously proud to be building a generating station that will supply clean and renewable energy for Ontario electricity consumers.

► Read more

Dokis receives CWWF funding for Hydrogeological study.

The $180,000 CWWF funding contribution will assist with new drinking water system.

► Read more

New Chief of Dokis looks to a bright future

The new Chief of Dokis is proud after being elected on May 21, 2018. Denise Restoule also works as the Community Development Coordinator for Dokis.

National Law Enforcement Workshop

COMMUNITY PERSPECTIVES

March 11-12, 2020

Designing & Drafting Laws