

Climate Change & the Framework Agreement

April 22, 2021

T'Sou-ke Nation

Andrew Moore – Architect, Community Development

Andrew Moore is an Architect who specializes in community development. He has worked extensively with all levels of government, the private sector and grass roots organizations in the UK, Canada and South Africa. He has worked for the T'Sou-ke Nation in BC for the last twelve years developing a comprehensive community plan and implementing many priority projects including the largest Indigenous net-zero solar project in Canada. Andrew is supporting elders to age in place by developing affordable rental high-performance homes with wrap around services which provide care models for Indigenous communities across Canada.

Williams Lake First Nation

Brittany Cleminson – Coordinator, Natural Resources

Brittany Cleminson holds a Bachelor of Arts (Archaeology) from Trent University, and expects to complete her Master of Arts (Heritage Resource Management) through Simon Fraser University by Fall 2021. Employed by Williams Lake First Nation since 2018, she wears many hats – Archaeologist, Emergency Coordinator, and Natural Resource Coordinator. A by-product of working in an area heavily impacted by climate change and natural disasters, including floods, landslides, and wildfires, Brittany has gained extensive experience in disaster management, emergency services, environmental mitigation, and natural resource management.

Magnetawan First Nation

Samantha Noganosh – Lands, Resources and Environment Manager

Samantha is a proud member of Magnetawan First Nation who works and lives in the community. She began in the Magnetawan Lands Department in 2015 as the Lands Clerk. Under the mentorship of the previous Lands Manager, Samantha had worked with various levels of Government, Ministries, industries, and proponents regarding Magnetawan First Nation Land. In 2020 she accepted the Lands Manager position. As well as her role in the Lands Department Samantha also sits as Deputy Chief in her Community bringing the foundation of her skills and experience full circle, from high level governance to on the land technical work.

Jennifer Predie – Manager, Land Code Governance

Jennifer Predie is a member of Six Nations, Onondaga. She is a professionally certified First Nations Land Manager with an applied degree in Environmental Management and diplomas in Terrain and Water Resources. Jennifer began her professional career in 2000 as an Environmental Scientist with EBA Engineering Consultants in Edmonton, AB

Chantal Kitamura – Environment & Enforcement Advisor

Chantal joined the Resource Centre in 2021. She is delighted to be part of the team and is enthusiastic about her role as Environment and Enforcement Specialist.

Cory Kozmik – Environment & Enforcement Advisor

Cory resides within Central-Northern Ontario and holds a BSc (Hons) specializing in Conservation from Trent University and is currently a Master's candidate in Boreal Ecology at Laurentian University. She also holds a Business diploma from Fleming College and is a certified restricted drone operator and Nitrox Scuba Diver.

Stefani Recollet – Waste Management Specialist

Stefanie Recollet is a member of Wahnapiatae First Nation, in Northern Ontario. She is from the Crane Clan and a proud Anishinaabe kwe. Stefanie's academic background includes a bachelors in Law, a certificate in Community Development and she holds numerous certifications related to land and environment management.

Adam Wright – Planner, Land Code Governance

Adam Wright is a registered professional planner (RPP, MCIP) and works as a Land Code Governance Planner with the First Nations Land Management Resource Centre. Over the past 10 + years Adam's work has spanned various sectors including private, non-profit, government and academia with a specific focus on the planning processes that regulate and guide land development on First Nations land. In his role with the Resource Centre, Adam provides land-use planning support to signatory Communities which includes offering any relevant expertise, resources, information, advice and guidance.

Stephen McGlenn – Specialist, Land Use Planning & Curriculum Delivery

Stephen McGlenn grew up on a farm in Southern Alberta, in Treaty 7 Territory. He completed his Bachelor of Arts (with Honours and Distinction) in Native American Studies at the University of Lethbridge in 2010. As a student, he was very active as an advocate for indigenous rights, social justice and climate change action. He then moved to the West Coast and in 2015 completed a Master of Arts degree at UBC, specializing in Indigenous Community Planning. Stephen then worked as a Lands & Resources Manager and faced the complex challenges and opportunities of implementing indigenous self-government.