RE: Framework Agreement READINESS CONFERENCE – February 27-28, 2018

The First Nations Lands Management Resource (FNLRC) and the National Aboriginal Lands Manager's Association (NALMA) are happy to announce a jointly hosted conference aimed at discussing "readiness" considerations for communities that are either interested in developing, or already developing self-governance over their own lands and resources. This session will feature a spectrum of experienced perspectives from a panel of related institutions, as well as representatives from developmental and operational First Nations signatory to the Framework Agreement. Several areas of interest will be examined through moderated question and answer type format focusing on environment, enforcement, liability, funding, economic development, Indian Act legacy issues and much more.
